NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. PRINCIPAL BUSINESS ACTIVITY AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Titanium Holdings Group, Inc. and its Subsidiary (collectively the "Company"). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The principal business activity of the Company is manufacturing and the wholesale distribution of sanitary maintenance supplies and paper products.

The Company recognizes revenue when products are shipped.

The Company maintains cash in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash.

Merchandise inventories are valued at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined using the first-in, first-out and average cost methods.

Inventory is comprised of the following:	2020	2019
Raw materials	$ 46,198	$ 48,472
Work in process	30,738	32,031
Finished goods	339,836	348,606
	$ 416,772	$ 429,109

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation and amortization of property and equipment is provided for by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of the economic life of the improvement or the lease term.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires the use of estimates by management. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Basic net income per common share is based on the weighted-average number of shares outstanding during the period while diluted net income per common share considers the diluted effect of stock options and warrants reflected under the treasury stock method. Both basic net income per share and diluted net income per share are the same since the Company's outstanding warrants and common stock to be issued have not been included in the calculation because their effect would have been antidilutive.

In July 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, "Business Combinations" (SFAS No. 141) and Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" (SFAS No. 142.)

SFAS No. 141 addresses financial accounting and reporting for business combinations. This statement requires the purchase method of accounting to be used for all business combinations, and prohibits the pooling-of-interests method of accounting. This statement is effective for all business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001 and supercedes APB Opinion No. 16, "Business Combinations" as well as FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 38, "Accounting for Preacquisition Contingencies of Purchased Enterprises".

SFAS No. 142 addresses how intangible assets that are acquired individually or with a group of other assets should be accounted for in financial statements upon their acquisition. This statement requires goodwill to be periodically reviewed for impairment rather than amortized, beginning on January 1, 2002. SFAS No. 142 supercedes APB Opinion No. 17, "Intangible Assets".

Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards, if currently adopted, would have a material effect on the accompanying financial statements.

Uncertain tax positions - Management has evaluated the Company's tax positions and concluded that the Company has not taken any uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of Accounting Standards Codification 740. Generally, the Company is no longer subject to income tax examination by U.S. federal, state or local tax authorities for the years before 2017, which is the standard statute of limitations look-back period.

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments and other short-term investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalent.

Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. To increase the comparability of fair value measurements, a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in the valuation methodologies, is as follows:

Level 1 – Valuations based on quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities in active markets.

Level 2 - Valuations based on observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets and liabilities in the markets that are not active, or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3 – Valuations based on unobservable inputs reflecting the Company's own assumptions, consistent with reasonably available assumptions made by other market participants. These valuations require significant judgment.

At December 31, 2020, the fair value of the Company's financial instruments including cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses, approximated book value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

Management has evaluated subsequent events for inclusion or disclosure in the financial statements from December 31, 2020 through May 11, 2021, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued. No events or transactions were identified during this period that required disclosure or recognition.

New Accounting Pronouncements- The Company has adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The standard's core principle is that a company will recognize revenue when it transfers promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. This standard also includes expanded disclosure requirements that result in providing users of financial statements with comprehensive information about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from the entity's contracts with customers. There was no material impact with the adoption of the standard on the Company's financial statements.

2. INVESTMENTS

The Company classifies its existing marketable equity securities as available-for-sale in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS No. 115"), "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities." These securities are carried at fair market value, with unrealized holding gains and losses reported in stockholders' equity as a component of other comprehensive income (loss). Gains or losses on securities sold are based on the specific identification method. The statement of operations includes a realized loss on marketable equity securities in 2020 as part of "other expense". The total loss, as a result of a publicly held company ceasing operations and going out of business, was $761,402.

During 2019 and 2020, the Company, with Board approval, purchased an additional interest in a real estate Limited Liability Company ("LLC") that it had invested in previously. The "LLC" acquired existing properties to develop them with residential townhomes and condominiums as well as some office and commercial space. Davis, President of the Company, abstained from the vote.

On March 19, 2014, a Phase 1 Environmental Study was completed and indicated that the properties were clean with no contamination.

On April 22, 2014, the properties were purchased using available cash. The total purchase price, inclusive of certain additional expenses, was $833,393. The property is being depreciated on the straight-line method over 39 years.

11. RISKS RELATING TO THE COMPANY

Post Pandemic

Primarily, as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic, not only are lead times extending out due to the high demand for goods, but this high demand is also driving up costs as demand outstrips the supply. There are many general market factors contributing to substantial cost increases, the most significant of which are increases in fuel cost, small parcel delivery carrier price increases, and rapid and significant increases in ocean freight costs. In addition to the general economic conditions, the Company's manufacturer partners are alerting the Company to industry specific challenges increasing their cost of components and final product. This inflation will impact all of product categories the Company carries and modes of transportation.

The Company has implemented mitigation strategies to offset costs as best they can. Based upon the information the Company has today, however, the Company does not believe they will be able to mitigate all cost increases due to their magnitude and impact across the multiple categories noted above. The Company intends to be proactive and transparent in communicating any significant price changes consistent with past practices.

RISKS RELATING TO THE COMPANY (CONTINUED):

Competition

The sanitary and janitorial supplies market is highly competitive and is served by numerous small, owner-operated private companies, public companies and several large regional and national companies. In addition, relatively few barriers prevent entry into the industry. As a result, any organization that has adequate financial resources and access to a minimum of technical cleaning expertise may become a competitor of the Company. Competition in the industry depends on a number of factors, including price. Certain of the Company's competitors may have lower overhead cost structures and may, therefore, be able to provide their products and services at lower rates than the Company can provide such products and services. Many of these competitors have longstanding operations and longstanding relationships with large customers such as hospitals and governmental agencies. There can be no assurance that the Company's competitors will not be able to use their competitive advantages in competing in price, offering more extensive lines of products or more favorable payment terms or otherwise, resulting in material adverse effects on the business of the Company. In addition, many of the Company's competitors are larger and have greater resources than are available to the Company. The Company cannot be certain that its competitors will not develop the expertise, experience, and resources to provide products and services that are superior in both price and quality to the products and services of the Company. Similarly, the Company cannot be certain that it will be able to attain, maintain or enhance a competitive position in the market.

Government Regulation

Maintenance and distribution of many of the Company's products are subject to extensive regulation at the federal, state, and local levels. In particular, the Company is subject to regulations involving storage of hazardous materials promulgated by the Federal Environmental Protection Agency and the Occupational Safety and Health Act. As such, the Company's business is dependent upon continued compliance with governmental regulations regarding the operations of the Company's facilities. The Company believes that it is in substantial compliance with all such regulations that are applicable to its business. However, failure to maintain and demonstrate compliance with all such regulations could result in the preclusion of handling certain product lines and in mandated clean up expenditures.

Potential Exposure to Environmental Liabilities

The operations of the Company are subject to various environmental laws and regulations, including those dealing with the handling and disposal of waste products. As part of the cleaning and janitorial supplies manufacturing process, the Company may store and use some raw materials that are deemed to be hazardous materials and are closely regulated. As a result of past and future operations, the Company may be required to incur environmental remediation costs and other clean-up expenses.

In addition, the Company cannot be certain that it will be able to identify or be indemnified for all potential liabilities relating to any acquired business.

There can be no assurance that the aggregate amount of any environmental liabilities that might be asserted against the Company in any such proceeding will not be material.

The Company cannot predict the types of environmental laws or regulations that may from time to time be enacted in the future by federal, state, or local governments, how existing or future laws or regulations will be interpreted or enforced, or what types of environmental conditions may be found to exist at its facilities. The enactment of more stringent laws or regulations or a more strict interpretation of existing laws and regulations may require additional expenditures by the Company, some of which could be material.

Product Liability and Insurance

The business of the Company involves substantial product liability risks associated with the handling, storing, and usage of cleaning products. While the Company believes its practices and procedures provide safeguards that comply with industry standards, it is not possible to eliminate all risks in this regard. The Company maintains product liability insurance in amounts it believes are usual and customary for a business of its size in its industry, though there can be no assurance that the Company may not be held liable on a product liability claim for an amount substantially in excess of its insurance policy limits or not covered by insurance. If the Company were to incur product liability in excess of its insurance limits, it would have a material adverse impact on the Company's business and prospects.

Dependence on Key Personnel; Need For Additional Personnel

The success of the Company is substantially dependent on the performance of its senior management and key employees, as well as its Board. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to locate and hire, and if hired, retain adequate additional management personnel. The Company has entered into an employment agreement with its Chief Executive Officer Randall K. Davis, upon terms and conditions the Company believes are reasonable and customary for companies its size in its industry. The loss of key personnel or the inability to hire and retain qualified executives and other employees could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, and results of operations of the Company.

Accordingly, the Insiders will have significant influence on the election of the directors of the Company. The Board elects officers and effectively controls the day to day operations through control of the Company management.

Indemnification and Limitation of Liability

Under the Nevada Revised Statutes (the "Statutes"), the Company shall have the power to eliminate the personal liability of the directors and officers of the Company for monetary damages to the fullest extent possible under the Statutes or other applicable law. These provisions eliminate the liability of directors or officers to the Company and its stockholders for monetary damages arising out of any violation of a director of his fiduciary duty of due care.

Under the Statutes, the Company may, by a majority of its disinterested directors, shareholders, or, in some cases, by independent legal counsel, indemnify any officer or director against expenses actually and reasonably incurred, if such person acted in good faith in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Company, and in the case of any criminal action or proceeding, if such person had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The Company may indemnify any officer or director against expenses and amounts actually paid or incurred in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the Board, estimated expenses of litigation. Indemnification and/or advancement of expenses provided by the Statutes are not exclusive and the Company may make any further advancement or payment of expenses. However, no indemnification and/or advancement will be made to any officer or director if such person shall have been adjudged to be liable, unless, upon application and determination of the court that in view of the circumstances in the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification.
